Last Friday morning while a party of young girls and boys were crossing this bridge at the Gem Roller Mills in a hay wagon the horses became unmanageable and started to run down a steep and dangerous part of the hill. R., after being out 25 minutes, brought in a verdict awarding him damages to the amount of $2,000.00. Hughes, Willis Brockbank and their families, having enjoyed nine days in the pure mountain air eating fish and mutton (the mutton being furnished by Michael Barclay.) During the stay they smooth shaven Henry McKell, A. T. Money and Heber Robertson. We are told that no one had seen Henry McKell's face for 25 years and his children don't know their father at all. The Press wants it distinctly understood that if these fellows don't go to work and raise a crop of whiskers they will be dropped from our subscription list.

Last Monday evening Mr. William Hone of Benjamin and Miss Ruth Jex of this city were married at the home of the bride's parents, Bishop A. J. Hansen, officiating. Nearly 100 people were present at the reception. The dining room was elaborately decorated with roses, carnations, simlax and and palms. The parlor was decorated in white and green simlax, carnations, daisies, palms and ferns with roses and lilies on the mantel. The setting room was nicely decorated with ferns, palms, sweet peas and roses, the whole showing great decorative ability. The bride was nicely dressed in white, carrying a large bouquet of white roses, the groom wearing a black dress suit. Mr. Hone, a cousin of the groom was best man and Miss Lillian Jex bridesmaid. Miss Hannah Jex acting as ring girl. Earnest Whitworth played several selections on the organ. The presents were many and some of them very costly. English Tea Party.

The 17th inst. being Mrs. Thos. Llewellyn's birthday, a large number of her lady friends and neighbors met at her home to remind her of that event. She was very busy sewing when Mrs. M. M. Thomas knocked at the door, and said "I see you are very busy, I'll help you some, but let me play you my favorite tune on the organ—'The Battle of Waterloo.'" So she sat down to listen and before she was through there came all the ladies crying out "Surprise on You." They filled the table with the best eatables in the land, and had a grand time singing, telling yarns, reciting, etc. Mrs. Llewellyn played her favorite piece, "The Moon Behind the Hill." Mrs. Hansen danced the Highland Fling; song by Mrs. Rhoda Evans, "Who Knows Me Better than Myself;" comic song by Mrs. M. M. Thomas, "I Am Left Alone to Think;" Mrs. Ed. Williams sang, "My Husband is Away Tonight;" Mrs. Richard Smith sang, "Scotch Lassie Jane;" Mrs. Dave Williams sang a Welch song, "Long Dewch Tia Ttref;" recitation, Mrs. Herbert Williams, "Never Borrow Trouble till Trouble Bothers You;" quartet by Mrs. Dan Williams, Mrs. John Williams, Mrs. William Brown and Mrs. Wm. West, "We Will Meet Some Other Day."

The Orchards.

"The Orchards" is the name of a new town to be built at the Mapleton depot. The project is to be backed by Eastern and local people. The site is already surveyed and mapped and quite a number of lots are already sold. A vigorous campaign is to be taken up in the prairie states to induce people to go to Utah Valley instead of going to Idaho and other less favored states. The Orchards is promised to have cement sidewalks and graded streets by the spring of 1909, these improvements being a part of the purchase price on each lot.

For $30 a well and pump are guaranteed on each lot. The blocks are to be 300x300 feet, the lots 50x145 feet facing East and West, and a 10 foot alley through each block for common property use. There will be two rows of shade trees on each street, elm, maple and ash to be planted on streets bearing these names.

The company is getting up a book boosting this part of the county as a fruit section. We are requested to say that their agents will sell lots in Utah, and if anyone desires to invest in The Orchards lots they should write to The Orchards Townsite Co., Springville, Utah.

Spanish Fork to Do Herself Proud.

If any one who comes to Spanish Fork on August 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th fails to have a real good time he'll be a "dead one" sure. The citizens of Spanish Fork, appreciating their opportunity, are going at the proposition right. They have as attractions on the dates named the annual encampment of the Black Hawk Indian War Veterans, the State Convention of Retail Merchants, and a racing meet of the State Driving Association.

The business men are already organized and working in committees for the events. Provision is being made to feed and lodge as many visitors as may come, and do it well. The Merchant's convention will draw together practically all the leading men in that line in the Utah jobbing territory.

Although not entitled to admission as delegates, all merchants are invited and expected. Spanish Fork prides herself on one of the finest and fastest racing tracks anywhere and the promise for some great races and big attendance of lovers of that sport is assured, while every veteran of the Indian War, who can, possibly, will be there.

The railroads have promised a one-fare rate, and rarely has the outlook for such an occasion been brighter anywhere.

State Land Selections.

Parents Held Responsible.

New York has adopted very stringent rules for the preservation of the health of school children, one of the latest developments being the rule that parents who do not keep their children in good health shall be prosecuted. This seems a little autocratic at first glance, but those who have studied the subject will readily understand that it is only common justice, as many parents are utterly indifferent as to the health of their children, exposing them unnecessarily, clothing them inadequately and not providing good food for them, even when their means allow.

Statesmen and Politicians.

"It's remarkable what a difference there is between the politicians of today and the statesmen of yesterday," said Representative Wesley Gaines of Tennessee, in Washington, the other day.

"That is very true," said Representative Kimball of Kentucky. "There is a young self-made fellow in my town, Lexington, who is a real power in the legislature. I once heard him say: 'I don't know nothing about statesmanship and don't know nothing about law, but if Henry Clay was down here minkin' in politics I would leave him at the post.'"

A Lazy Liver

May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well as a savage thing to beat a weary or starved man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to lash it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with over work.

Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the defection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or variable appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, despondent, frequent headaches, pain or distress in "small of back," gnawing or distressing feeling in stomach, perhaps nausea, or "rising" in throat after eating, and kindred symptoms of weak stomach and torpid liver, no medicine will relieve you more promptly or surely than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Perhaps only a part of the above symptoms will be present at one time and yet point to torpid liver or biliousness and weak stomach. Avoid all hot breads and biscuits, griddle cakes and other indigestible food and take the "Golden Medical Discovery" regularly and stick to its use until you are vigorous and strong.

The "Discovery" is non-secret, non-alcoholic, is a glyceric extract of native medicinal plants with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. Its ingredients are endorsed and extolled by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure the diseases for which it is advised.

Don't accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret MEDICINE OF KNOWN COMPOSITION.

Samuel Stoker Dead.

Samuel Stoker died on the 17th inst., from a paralytic stroke from which he had been suffering for four years. He had been bedfast 19 months.

His funeral was held on Sunday afternoon from the Third ward assembly rooms. The stand was draped in white with a splendid display of beautiful flowers.

David Prior, one of the bishopric presided, and the choir, led by Elder Rees James, sang, "God Moves in a Mysterious Way," "Nearer My God to Thee" and "When first the Light of Truth Burst Forth." A solo was sung by Mrs. Annie Beck, accompanied by two of her sisters. "When we meet on That Beautiful Shore." A quartette composed of Edward Williams, his brother, Lars W. Nielsen and Joseph Larsen, "Brave Heart Forever Still." Elders Marinus Larsen and Charles Monk, the speakers, bore testimony to his honesty of purpose, truth and fidelity coupled with his humility.

Invocation was given by C.W. Booth, and the parting prayer was offered by Morgan Beck.
